LiveRez.com's QuickBooks Integration Earns Trust Accounting Compliance in North Carolina

The company's exclusive integration with the world's most trusted accounting platform was recently certified as compliant by the North Carolina Real Estate Commission

BOISE, Id. — LiveRez.com's exclusive QuickBooks integration has been evaluated by The North Carolina Real Estate Commission (NCREC) and has been found to comply with the provisions of the Commission's Rules and Trust Account Guidelines.

"This is exciting news for us and the many vacation rental managers in North Carolina," said Tracy Lotz, founder and CEO of LiveRez.com. "With this certification, managers in North Carolina will now be able to use the world's most trusted accounting platform."

LiveRez.com has an exclusive integration with QuickBooks.

According to a 2010 VRMA survey, more than 40 percent of respondents said they used QuickBooks, making it more than eight times more popular than the next integrated accounting software platform. LiveRez.com's QuickBooks integration is a one-of-a-kind feature in the industry as it allows vacation rental managers to seamlessly integrate all of their accounting data into the world's most popular accounting platform.

LiveRez.com, which has devoted hundreds of hours to developing this QuickBooks integration, was informed of its certification via e-mail on June 27.

"I can give the compliance nod based on the 6.15 QB (QuickBooks) file, or in other words 'LiveRez, version 6.15,'" said Emmet Wood, director of audits and investigations for the North Carolina Real Estate Commission.

With the certification, LiveRez.com, the single largest and fastest growing vacation rental software platform, will now be able to extend its complete web-based software services to vacation rental managers in North Carolina.

"This certification will enable vacation rental managers in North Carolina to utilize the accounting industry's bookkeeping standard, QuickBooks Pro," Lotz said. "We're thrilled to now be able to offer VRM's in North Carolina a complete, end-to-end solution for their trust accounting needs.”
